HEATHCOTE

2018 Little White Duck

Tasting note: Roussanne makes a huge entrance here. This wine has a yellow colour and is very moreish. Medium bodied, plump, with fragrant aromas of almond meal and nectarine. Very typical of these Rhone varietals. Abundant flavours dominated by crushed nuts, nashi pear and hints of candy. It has a fleshy mid-palate and a dry finish. With time this wine will become much richer. Bottled May 2018. Drinking Now and up to 5 years cellaring.

Grape Variety: 55% Roussanne,
45% Viognier

Alcohol: 13.8% Vol

Wild Duck Creek Estate is a small family-run winery situated 8km west of Heathcote, alongside the Wild Duck Creek itself. David (aka 'Duck') and Diana planted the first vines in 1974 and in 1979 named the first vineyard "Alan's Cabernet Vineyard", after Duck's late father Alan. The "Original Vineyard" was planted in 1988 on land owned by Diana's parents. Traditional winemaking methods including hand-picking, open fermentation, hand-plunging, basket-pressing, and long-term barrel-ageing are fostered, as is the use biodynamic principles on their own vineyards. Duck remains adamant however, that it's still the vineyard and site selection especially, that dictate great wines. Second-generation winemaking has flourished for more than a decade through Liam, whose methodical yet innovative approaches merge fantastically with Duck's eccentricity – a humorous and brilliant concoction! The estate's passion is to produce extraordinary wines of balance and power that enrich and delight the senses.
